

ITI 2009 – Washington DC

INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM AND INTELLIGENCE

NOW IN ITS 8TH YEAR

Since 2002, the most significant annual transatlantic gathering of counter-terrorism minds

“A STRATEGIC CROSSROADS IN THREAT AND IN RESPONSE”
HOW SHOULD PUBLIC AND PRIVATE SECTOR PREPARE?

ITI returns to Washington for the second time after a highly successful London meeting in June 2008

Pre-conference Workshop & Reception - 21st June

Conference - 22nd and 23rd June 2009

Evening reception hosted by the Deputy Chief of Mission for the United Kingdom to the United States 22nd June

Evening reception hosted by RMS on the 23rd June

A prestigious location in Washington D.C.

Experts and practitioners gather to discuss:

- How is the threat developing
- Radicalisation and counter - radicalisation/dis-engagement efforts
- Police, military and intelligence collaboration
- COIN and development in conflict zones
- Threat characterisation and pro-active protective security
- Cyber-security, new technologies, threats and opportunities
- Engaging the private sector and building partnerships
- Regional focus sessions – to provide up to the minute analysis
- The prevention of WMD proliferation and terrorism
- Terrorism finance and financial intelligence
- Horizon scanning and strategic futures

In addition, there will be

- Case studies
- Expert workshops with targeted outputs
- Emphasis on floor discussions with the expert audience
- Unrivalled networking opportunities at formal and informal functions

“ITI and its substantive contributions lead the academic and policymaking communities in identifying and exploring the issues key to understanding terrorism. ITI’s convening power makes it unrivalled in bringing together, into an open academic forum, the top minds in terrorism studies and counterterrorism.”

Neal A. Pollard, Georgetown University

ITI is a prestigious event celebrated for its nonpareil list of eminent figures from both the private and public sectors and with a reputation for attracting the leading thinkers and the thinking leaders. With the quality of expertise available from every member of the expert audience at hand, ITI is renowned as one of the most stimulating and useful conferences in the field.

We are delighted to announce that the Deputy Chief of Mission of the United Kingdom to the United States of America is honouring our speakers, sponsors, delegates and guests with a reception on Monday 22nd June.
